Richard Hunt returned from a few days trip to Kansas City the latter part of last week. Dick says there are some things, many, in fact, to be had, if you have the price. He had.

Young men and women for railway mail and government clerkships. $110 month. Age 18 upward. Examination June 16. Experience unnecessary. For free particulars, write R. Terry (former Civil Service Examiner) 1331 Continental Bldg. Washington, D. C.

Geo. Kramm and Mrs. R. B. Kramm and son of Forrest Green were here Saturday and paid the Courier a call. Mr. Kramm said corn planting was badly behind what it should be. Rain Tuesday and Wednesday of last week put plows and planters out of the fields. So all over the corn belt and corn jumping towards the $3 mark.

2 Roan Shorthorn Bulls 12 months old unregistered weight 600 lbs $75 each.

Some splendid full blood Barred Rock chickens for sale.
16 C. C. Parks

The dinner at The Ernst Sunday was enjoyed by a number of our citizens as well as some transients. It was a chicken dinner and later on when fryers are ripe we look for not less than half of a two pounder to disappear before our onslaught, if that's what you call it.

Levi Parsons Morton died Sunday night at his home on the Hudson, on the anniversary of his 96th birthday. He was vice-president in 1888 and once governor of New York. A born financier, he died immensely rich tho his start in life was as a clerk at $14 a month.

Judge E. B. Welch came Monday and spent the most of the week attending circuit court. Judge Welch, for an 82 year old, is about as active as the average man at 60 and he says he can do more work than any other man in the United States of his age and what is more, likes to do it.
